Wrapping Your Brain Around Brain Tumor Statistics

According to the American Cancer Society, brain and spinal cord tumors may affect more people than you think. Nearly 25,000 new tumors will be diagnosed among adults and children, and nearly 20,000 people will lose their battles with brain and spinal cord tumors this year. Over 100 types of brain tumors have been diagnosed, each with its own symptoms, treatments, and outcomes. In this article, we examine brain tumor statistics, symptoms, and treatments to educate our clients and the public.

Tips to Ensure You Receive the Best Cancer Care

As a cancer patient, you deserve access to exceptional cancer care. Healthcare professionals play a critical role in your diagnosis, treatment, and outlook for survival. Sadly, cancer misdiagnosis or delayed diagnosis affects at least 5% of American adults every year. Mishandled lab results, understaffed hospitals, dismissed patient concerns, and general medical incompetence are often to blame. In this article, we offer tips to ensure you receive the best cancer care to save lives, create awareness, and hopefully celebrate more future cancer survivors.

RESULTS FOR OUR CLIENTS

Emergency Room Mistake Results in Disabling Stroke

The Pegalis Law Group, LLC, has secured a substantial pre-trial settlement for a client who has suffered permanent and life-changing disabilities as a result of a serious mistake in a hospital emergency room. Despite a neurosurgeon's recommendation, the emergency room doctor decided to delay a critical test without a good reason. As a result of this unfortunate mistake the patient had a major stroke which has left him partially paralyzed and unable to speak more than a few words. He will have those disabilities for the rest of his life.

Client Testimonials

"Dear Bob,

Thank you for doing such an intelligent job in representing us. This was a big win for us. Hopefully the doctors will change and dig deeper into diagnosing 'the obvious.' May

God help you search for the truth every day."

"Dear James,

We are just writing to let you know how we are and how the settlement you obtained for us has made a very great difference in our life. We are now living at an assisted living facility and this would not have been possible without the funds that we received through your efforts. We want you and everyone else at Pegalis to know that the work you have done for us has made a tremendous difference in our life and that we will always be extremely grateful for everything you did."
